YOUNG IS NAMED THE VETERANS' CHIEF

LOUISVILLE GENERAL, ONE OF
"MORGAN'S MEN," ELECTED UNANIMOUSLY.

Parade and Review Followed by Ball,
Which Brings Reunion Week
to a Close.

By The Associated Press.

Macoon, Ga., May 9.—After creating the title of life honorary commander and vesting it upon Gen. C. Irvine Walker, retiring commander in chief, the United Confederate Veterans in their final session today elected Gen. Bennett H. Young of Louisville, who was named commander for the next year. Gen. W. K. Vansandt of Fort Worth, Texas, also a candidate for the honor, gracefully withdrew from the race, and Gen. Young's election was unanimous.

Other officers elected

Gen. George P. Harrison, Opelika, Ala., commander of the army of the Tennessee, succeeded Gen. Young.

Col. Thos. Garner, Norfolk, Va., commander army of Northern Virginia.

Gen. W. K. Vansandt, Ft. Worth, Texas, commander of Trans-Mississippi department.

Aside from the election, the annual parade and review of the fast thinning ranks of the confederacy was the feature of the day. Fully 7000 of the old soldiers of the "gray" were in line, and the procession, always the dramatic climax of the reunions, drew hundreds of thousands from all over the southland to the line of march.

Camp Breaking Up.

Tonight the veterans' annual ball to the sponsors, matrons and maids brought the reunion week to a close, and tonight scores of special trains left the city, carrying the visitors to their homes.

The general reunion committee tonight announced that 60,000 visitors had been cared for during the week.

Not a veteran has died during the present reunion, which is said to be a record unsurpassed by any reunion of the past. Although a warm sun shone throughout the day and the line of march of the parade was sixteen blocks long, it was stated tonight that not a veteran was cared for by the ambulance corps or emergency hospitals.

NEW CONFEDERATE CHIEF ONE OF "MORGAN'S MEN"

By The Associated Press.

Louisville, May 9.—Gen. Bennett H. Young of Louisville, chosen commander in chief of the United Confederate Veterans today at Macoon, was "one of Morgan's men." This term is always served to describe in Kentucky those who fought during the civil war under the famous Confederate cavalry leader, Gen. John H. Morgan, and who followed him on his raids in the heart of the northern country.

Born in 1845 in Jessamine county, Ky., in the heart of the blue grass country, Bennett is said to have lived up to the proud Kentucky accomplishment and boast of having learned to ride before he could walk. Leaving college as a youth only 18 years of age, he gave up his books for the saber and spurs of a Confederate trooper, and with the exception of the time he spent in northern prisons, served continuously until the close of hostilities.

In Farmer.

Since the war Gen. Young has combined farming with the practice of law, as well as serving as a director of numerous banking, trust and insurance companies. He served as chairman of the history committee of the United Confederate Veterans. In this position he has published many original papers in connection with the civil war.

Gen. Young is a democrat, but has held no political office. He is a member of the Southern Presbyterian church, having served one term as moderator of the synod of Kentucky.

Coming from a family of slave holders, Gen. Young has always been a staunch friend of the negro, and much of his philanthropic work, both personal and in connection with church charity, has been devoted to that race. A year ago when Gen. Young was taken to a Baltimore hospital for an operation, special prayers for his speedy recovery were offered in many of the negro churches of Louisville.

Gen. Young resides with his wife and children in Louisville during the winter months, devoting his time to his Kentucky farms throughout the summer.

In Fighting Strain.

Gen. Young is of fighting stock. His grandfather, John Young, was a revolutionary soldier and fought under Gen. Greene in most of the campaigns in Virginia and the Carolinas. John Young was at the battle of King's mountain, and his brother, Robert Young, killed Gen. Ferguson, the British commander, in that fight.

On his mother's side, Gen. Young is descended from Col. Joseph Crockett, a distinguished officer of the revolution, who also served with Gen. Rogers Clark in the northwest.

Gen. Young first enlisted at the outbreak of the civil war in the Eighth Kentucky cavalry, U. S. C., which was part of Gen. Morgan's brigade. He was captured in Ohio with Gen. Morgan, confined in the state penitentiary at Columbus; later at Camp Chase, and was finally taken a prisoner of war to Camp Douglas. He escaped from Camp Douglas and succeeded in reaching Canada.

HOUSE VOTES TO LET COMMERCE COURT GO

ALL TRIBUNAL'S RAIL REGULATORY POWERS TO BE RESTORED TO RATE BOARD.

Bureau Created to Absorb Powers of Tariff Commission and Many Departments.

By The Associated Press.

Washington, May 9.—Revolutionary proposals such as have not been grouped in any bill passed by the present session of congress were adopted by the house today in the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill. The measure will be voted on and probably passed formally tomorrow. The bill now proposes:

Abolition of the United States commerce court and the restoration to the interstate commerce commission of all railroad regulatory powers to appeal only to the United States district courts. Creation of a bureau of foreign and domestic commerce with all the present powers of the so-called tariff board to be under the jurisdiction of the secretary of commerce and labor. The new bureau will absorb the bureau of trade relations with the state department, the bureau of manufactures and statistics of the department of commerce and labor.

Concentration of the distribution of public documents of which millions annually are sent from Washington in the government printing office.

In addition to these three principal changes in the operation of the government the house overturned the committee in charge of the bill in a number of instances.

After a bitter fight the house defeated a proposal to abolish the mint at San Francisco, New Orleans and Carson City and the assay offices at Boise, Charlotte, N. C., Deadwood, S. D., Helena, Montana, Seattle, Washington, and Salt Lake City. It also refused to abolish the position of deputy commissioner of lighthouse service and on this latter Speaker Clark joined with the opposition to the committee.

The defection in the democratic ranks caused an outbreak in the closing hours of the session, which lasted from 11 o'clock this morning until 9 this evening. The house, under a misapprehension, had just repudiated the committee on the clause providing for concentration in sending out public documents adopting an amendment excepting the agricultural department, when Chairman Fitzgerald arose within a chamber jammed with a jeering, hooting crowd.

Clark Demanded.

"I have sat here," he said, "and have seen certain distinguished members of my own party vote to overrule its committee. Working in the interests of economy and for the carrying out of the party's pledge to that end, these men have forsaken the committee and if defeat is the party's portion in November, they will be responsible."

Seeing in Mr. Fitzgerald's remarks, a veiled attack on Speaker Clark, republican members deserted that side of the chamber and crowded around him. No names were mentioned, however, and all through the speaker hurried from his office during the attack, he took no notice of it, while Mr. Fitzgerald denounced those democrats who voted against their committee as "political guerrillas."

FEDERAL OFFICERS PROBE MOUNTAIN WEDDING STORY

Myrian is Held on White Slavery Charge at Cincinnati.

By The Associated Press.

Cincinnati, May 9.—While federal officers are investigating their story of a wedding on a wild mountain road near Cumberland Gap, Ky., Pearl Hall, a 15-year-old Springfield, Tennessee, girl, and Jacques Smiles, 21, a Myrian, are detained here.

The man is held on white slavery charges. After their arrest yesterday the girl told a romantic story of how they met while she lived at the home of her sister in Pineville, Kentucky. Smiles smiled at her and she smiled back, she declared, and then they were married.

Neither man or the girl were able to produce documentary proof of the wedding.

whence he sailed to the West Indies. Running the blockade, he reached Wilmington, N. C., and re-embarked. He was finally given the command of lieutenant and detailed on secret service duty by the Confederate secretary of war. He was engaged in the operations and efforts to release the prisoners at Camp Douglas, near Chicago, and at Camp Chase, in Ohio, and shortly before the close of the civil war led across the border from Canada a successful raid on St. Albans, Vt.

Goes Abroad.

This attack became the subject of an international dispute, and the rights of Lieut. Young and the five other young southerners as belligerents were involved. The war closed about this time, Young found it advisable to go abroad and remain until the controversy was settled. During this time he studied at Queens college Belfast, supplementing the education he had received as a youth before the war at Center college, Kentucky.

On his return to Kentucky in 1866 he settled in Louisville and began the practice of law.

RANDELL GIVES TARIFF VIEWS AT SAN ANGELO

WOOL TRUST ONLY BENEFITED
BY TAX ON COMMODITY, HE TELLS WEST TEXANS.

Special to The Morning News.

San Angelo, Tex., May 9.—Before an assembly that filled the district court room of the Tom Green county court house and forced nearly a hundred to stand in the hall and doorways, Hon. Choice B. Randell, candidate for United States senator, delivered his first speech to a San Angelo audience tonight at 8 o'clock. Col. Randell was met at the train upon his arrival this afternoon by a reception committee, composed of Judge J. W. Hill, an ardent prohibitionist; W. L. Kelley, John P. Nettleton, Charles B. Metcalfe, Dr. Boyd McCormick, S. E. Taylor, J. O. Frink, Frank Van Court, Mayor W. T. Bishop, J. M. Williams, John P. Bell, H. E. Mayfield, J. D. Smith, G. T. Gwin, S. G. Hodges, J. Spencer Jr., James Arnett, J. W. Knapp and Thomas F. Owen.

Mr. Randell tonight delivered a strong address, according to the applause that greeted his remarks, and followed closely the statements that he has been making during his western tour. He said that he was against free raw materials, and while he knew that this was one of the greatest wool growing countries in the world, he would not refrain from discussing the tariff as a democrat and a follower of Thomas Jefferson. He went on to explain how the wool trust was the only one benefited by a tax on wool. He started to discuss Bailey's criticism of him, when a man who had not gained a seat in the crowd asked him "not to talk about Joe."

"If a big bulldog was continually snapping at your heels, wouldn't you think that you had a right to give him a kick?" Randell asked.

WANTS PROBE OF ALLEGED "PLATE" TRUST

By The Associated Press.

Washington, May 9.—Representative Taggart, democrat of Kansas, today introduced a resolution directing the judiciary committee to investigate the Western Newspaper Union, with headquarters at Omaha, to learn if it is a combination in restraint of trade in violation of the trust law or is attempting to monopolize trade. A similar resolution directing a similar investigation was offered several weeks ago.

Oklahoma—Showers Friday; Saturday fair.

East Texas—Friday showers and cooler in north; south showers and cooler, Saturday fair.

TELLS OF SCENES OF HILLSVILLE SHOOTING

FIRST MAN TO REACH THE DYING
JUDGE REPEATS HIS LAST WORDS.

"I'm Dying; Sidna Allen Did It," the Jurist Cried, as He Fell Mortally Wounded.

By The Associated Press.

Wytheville, Va., May 9.—"I'm dying; I'm dying; Sidna Allen did it," Judge Massey's first words as he fell, mortally wounded, during the pistol battle that killed four others in the Hillsville court house on March 14, were repeated today at the trial of Floyd Allen, one of the gang charged with the five murders.

Daniel Thomas, a sturdy countryman, who was the first to reach the dying judge, detailed the scene and the fight. When he repeated Judge Massey's words his eyes filled with tears and he gave way to his emotion. "Sid" Allen never has been captured.

Jack Allen, kinman of all the gang, denied on the stand that he had taken a steel breastplate from his brother, Floyd, before deputies had arrested him. Jack Allen resented the sharp cross-examination to which the prosecution forced him to submit.

Stereotypers Who Struck in Chicago Outside Union Pale

By The Associated Press.

Chicago, May 9.—President James E. Freel of the International Stereotypers and Electrotypers' union today took drastic action against members of Stereotypers' union No. 4 who quit work in sympathy with the newspaper pressmen.

Freel, with the members of the executive council of the international union, formally canceled the charter of the local union because the men refused to return to work after being ordered to do so by Freel.

Several days ago, in anticipation of "traveling cards" to their members, giving the men standing in any office in the country, President Freel's order canceling the charter of the local union also canceled all the traveling cards issued by this union to any of its members. The effect of this action by Mr. Freel is to leave every stereotyper employed in Chicago outside the union ranks.

It is understood to be the intention of Mr. Freel to try to organize another local union in the place of the one just wiped out by him.

MUTINY ON RUSSIAN BATTLESHIP PUT DOWN

SIXTY MEMBERS OF CREW ARE PLACED UNDER ARREST AND VESSEL SAILS.

By The Associated Press.

St. Petersburg, May 9.—A mutiny occurred yesterday aboard the battleship Tzarovitch and sixty members of the crew were put under arrest. The members are supposed to have some connection with the unrest which has prevailed in the local government navy yard since 200 men were dismissed for taking a holiday on May 1. Directly after the suppression of the mutiny the squadron sailed for an unknown destination.

HOT WELL TEAM CAPTAINS GUESTS OF REAL ESTATE MEN

Campaign to Raise Subscriptions
For Remaining Stock Discussed at Luncheon.

The campaign for raising the remaining $10,000 subscriptions of hot well company stock was discussed at a meeting of the team captains, held in conjunction with the Real Estate Exchange Thursday luncheon, at the New Exchange hotel yesterday.

Those at the luncheon besides the members of the real estate exchange were, the hot well team captains, Tom A. Caulfield, W. J. Geisler, Dave Hawtorn, Hood Hill, J. B. Fisher, Bart Moore and W. C. Crawford, and other hot well boosters.

A letter with figures as to the cost of the test well was read by President Peyton Randell, of the real estate exchange.

FREE EITHER TO EAT OR WORK OR TO DO NEITHER

Louisiana Governor Replies to Charge Negroes Forced to Labor on Levees.

By The Associated Press.

Baton Rouge, La., May 9.—"All able-bodied men in refuge camps, regardless of color, are given the option of working and eating or doing neither," said Governor J. Y. Sanders who quit work on the levee today long enough to write a telegram to Oswald Garrison Villard of New York City, chairman of the executive committee of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, why negroes in Louisiana were forced to work repairing levees.

POLITICIANS ATTEND GAME.

By The Associated Press.

Washington, May 9.—Vice-President Sherman, Speaker Champ Clark, and the members of the Illinois congressional delegation and the Chicago American League baseball team, were guests of Representative Madden of Illinois at luncheon at the capital today. The legislators insisted on talking baseball and the ball players tried to find out something about politics.

ARMIES MEET ON STRAIN ON THE PLAIN BEFORE TORREON

SKIRMISHING RAGES FOR HOURS BETWEEN VANGUARDS OF OPPOSING FORCES.

Gen. Huerta Telegraphs Rebels Were Repulsed, With Twenty-two Dead.

At the Rebel Front, Near Bermijillo, Mex., May 9.—Skirmishing between the vanguard of Gen. Orozco's army and the federals under Gen. Huerta raged for hours today through a storm of wind and dust on the desert plain in front of Torreon, the objective point of the rebels.

Operating from Escalon as a base where Gen. Orozco and his staff are stationed, the liberal forces continued to tighten their cordon around the heavily garrisoned and fortified outposts at Bermijillo and Mapima, both less than twenty miles from Torreon.

Federals Wary.

Though there was much skirmishing, no battle had been fought up to 5 o'clock this afternoon, the federals refusing to be drawn from their strong positions. There was hardly an hour in the day, however, that the liberals did not fight at some point to coax the federals out into the open.

In the meantime Gen. Orozco began to get his men into positions where his artillery could support them.

Notwithstanding the intense heat, the men in the field are in good condition. A high wind has blown constantly for several days, raising clouds of dust and enabling the liberals to move freely without fear of detection.

HUERTA REPORTS BATTLE WITH A REBEL REVERSE

By The Associated Press.

Mexico City, May 9.—In an engagement today at Seragosa, near Tlaxiuallo, forty miles north of Torreon, between the advance columns of the rebels and the federals under Gen. Rabago, a severe reverse was inflicted on the rebels, according to a dispatch from Gen. Huerta at Bermijillo to President Madero tonight. Twenty-two rebels are reported killed and the same number wounded. The rebels were seen carrying wounded from the field. These were believed to be officers. The federal losses were not reported. The dispatch indicated that the rebels had been forced to stop their advance and to retire from their position.

GOEZ DENIES HE IS OROZCO'S PRISONER

By The Associated Press.

Juarez, May 9.—Rebel leaders here tonight admitted the vanguard of their forces had attacked Bermijillo, on the way to Torreon, and had met stubborn resistance all day. Reports of twelve hours of skirmishing, however, had reached here. According to Col. Orozco Sr., father of the leader of the rebels, 8000 insurgents are entrenched near Bermijillo, and about 3000 federals.

A dispatch from Escalon said a courier from the front brought the news that the federals from behind strongly fortified positions were warding off the rebel attack with heavy artillery fire. Gen. Huerta, commander of the government troops, is said to be well toward the front of his army, directing operations.

The presidential situation was tonight unchanged. Emilio Vasquez Gomez denied he was a prisoner. Some of the rebel leaders declare the hours of Gomez as provisional president are numbered.

B. L. E. INDONESIAN COMPENSATION ACT

By The Associated Press.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 9.—The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers endorsed the workmen's compensation bill, now pending in congress, at the closing session of the biennial convention here today, and H. W. Willis, assistant grand chief engineer and joint national legislative representative, was directed to go to Washington tomorrow to present the action of the convention to congress.

KILLED AS AUTOMOBILE AND ENGINE COLLIDED

By The Associated Press.

St. Louis, May 9.—Frank J. Bergs, vice-president and general manager of a local company, was killed and Mrs. H. B. Johnson and her daughter, Miss Virginia Johnson of Memphis, and Miss G. M. Bell of St. Louis, were seriously injured when the automobile which Bergs was driving was struck by a Missouri-Pacific engine at Barrett Station, St. Louis county, this afternoon.

GERMANY NOT SENDING ENGLAND ANY OLD MINISTER

By The Associated Press.

Cologne, May 9.—The nomination as ambassador at London of a statesman of Marschal von Bieberstein's prominence, according to a press dispatch from Berlin to the Cologne Gazette, shows the importance that Germany attaches to its relations with Great Britain. The dispatch intimates that the new ambassador will initiate a somewhat altered policy toward England.

Failure of Governor to Appoint Physicians on Tuberculosis Commission is Mentioned.

With the election of new officers for the State Medical Association of Texas and their induction into office, the selection of San Antonio as the 1913 meeting place, and a refusal to condemn Governor Campbell or commend Governor Colquitt, the association adjourned Thursday afternoon, after a three-day session in Waco.

The new officers include Dr. John S. Turner, Dallas, president; Dr. J. W. Overton of Sweetwater, Dr. J. L. Norsworthy of Houston, and Dr. J. B. Knight of Brady, vice-presidents; Dr. W. E. Sturgis of San Angelo, trustee; Dr. P. Miller of El Paso, Dr. S. C. Parsons of San Angelo, Dr. Albert Woldert of Tyler and Dr. J. H. Hall of Crystal Falls, counselors.

San Antonio won the 1913 convention by a vote of 44 to 32. A number of speeches boosting either town were made by the enthusiastic delegates but San Antonio won on the first vote.

The last day's program was marked by a number of interesting addresses, including that of Dr. A. Sophian of New York, who gave personal observations on the meningitis epidemic in Dallas and over Texas last winter. An effort was made to complete the various programs but there were too many addresses scheduled and only the most important were heard.

Colquitt Lacks Praise.

Refusal to commend Governor Colquitt for signing the bill establishing the State Anti-Tuberculosis Commission created considerable interest at the Thursday morning session in the house of delegates.

Dr. Frank Paschal of San Antonio, in a few commendatory words for the reporting for a committee, included Governor Campbell, who gave personal observations on the meningitis epidemic in Dallas and over Texas last winter. An effort was made to complete the various programs but there were too many addresses scheduled and only the most important were heard.

Officers for the County, Secretaries' Association, which held a meeting in Waco during the convention were elected, and included are: President, Dr. Thomas Dorbandt, San Antonio; first vice-president, Dr. J. C. Calhoun, Henrieta; second vice-president, Dr. R. H. Cochran, Coleman; secretary, Dr. J. E. Robinson, Temple.

Many of the physicians attending the convention departed for their homes on late trains Thursday afternoon and last night. Others remained over to attend to business matters but very few of the visitors will be in the city after this afternoon.

By The Associated Press.

Hong Kong, May 9.—Thousands of Chinese soldiers who have been sent to Swatow in the province of Kwang Tung are returning. It is reported that the disbanding of these troops is to take place. The governor of Hong Kong has been made commander of the troops and said he is going to exterminate the disturbances on West River. Hundreds of bodies can be seen floating near the banks of the West river.

Foreigners in South China expect a renewal of the recent anarchical conditions now that the funds of the government treasury are depleted.

The British fleet has sailed for the north of China with thousands of Indian troops from Hong Kong. Other detachments of the garrison here, it is reported, are awaiting orders to embark.

Dallas, Tex., May 9.—Later returns from the county conventions make little change in the situation. Woodrow Wilson has swept the state and Colonel Roosevelt has a clear lead but not a majority over President Taft.

The republicans will hold district conventions on May 16 and the democrats will hold district conventions on May 28.—The democratic district conventions will all be held at Houston the same day the state convention is held. Each party will elect a total of 32 district delegates. The state conventions meet simultaneously on May 28, the democrats at Houston and the republicans at Fort Worth. Comparatively few of the county conventions of Tuesday instructed for the district conventions, but instead confined their instructions to the state convention proceedings.

FIVE QUAKES SHAKE GUADALAJARA, MEXICO

By The Associated Press.

Guadalajara, Mex., May 9.—Five earthquakes in addition to the fourteen experienced yesterday were felt there at short intervals up to noon today. The most pronounced shocks were at Pocat and 2:20 a. m. Several buildings have been slightly damaged but there has been no loss of life.

A peculiarity of the disturbance was the fact that their action was limited to a zone about 12 miles in diameter with its centers five kilometers west of the city where fissures are reported to have appeared in a hillside.

Ludad Guzman or Sopotlan, as it is sometimes called, where damage was done by a quake about a year ago, was outside the zone and telegrams from there stated that the shocks were not felt.

QUAKE REPORTS FALSE.

By The Associated Press.

Mexico City, May 9.—Reports of an earthquake in Mexico City today which supposed to have reached the United States are without foundation. Yesterday's series of shocks at Guadalajara and vicinity was local. The disturbances were recorded at the Tacubaya observatory here. Reports from Colima indicate no serious damage done.

SHALL THE COTTON PALACE BE CLOSED?

Editor Morning News:

I see in your paper of May 6, a resolution passed by the First Baptist church asking that the Cotton Palace be closed on Sunday. Now, I would like to ask, why? Would it violate any command of God? No. God has nowhere said, thou shalt keep Sunday holy. If it is wrong to run the Cotton Palace on Sunday, is it not wrong to run it on Monday or Saturday? Then if it is closed on Sunday to please the Baptist, why not close on Saturday to please the Jews? We have Sunday baseball, why not Sunday Cotton Palace? I think the Cotton Palace is more elevating and instructive than baseball. Sunday is not the Sabbath. Saturday or the seventh day, is the Sabbath. Sunday is the first day and the day we are to meet and break bread. Is it any more wrong to not meet and break bread than it is to attend the Cotton Palace? I think not. I want the Baptist to tell me where the first church ever tried to have laws passed to stop an evil. I am a preacher and I think I know what is in the bible. I have never found where any christian ever used evil power to help him convert people. If we are to have a Cotton Palace, let us make it a clean and instructive institution and have it open at least a part of each Sunday.

Yours to help Waco grow.

COMPANY OFFICIAL TESTIFIES
LAST OCTOBER HE ORDERED EVIDENCE DESTROYED.

Due to Oversight, Government Secured Possession of Papers It Now Has.

By The Associated Press.

New York, May 9.—The question as to whether officers of the American Steel and Wire Company ordered the destruction of the evidence used in the so-called Jackson wire pool cases before or after the filing of the pending dissolution suit against the United States Steel corporation was answered today. Frank Baackes, vice-president of the wire company, testified before Commissioner Brown that he had given the order to George A. Cragin, his assistant sales manager at Worcester, Mass., in September or early in October last. The suit was filed on October 26.

Orders All Destroyed.

Baackes testified further that he had given orders after the dissolution of the wire pools three years ago for the destruction of all the papers connecting his company with the pool operations, but the order had been only partly executed.

It was due to this oversight that the papers now in question came into the hands of the government.

Whitney testified a day or two ago that Baackes had given him the order personally during a visit the latter made to Worcester in November and that at the grand jury investigation in the pools that an effort was made by Baackes and Cragin to guide his testimony in this regard. They hoped that he would testify that the directions were given by Cragin, he said.

Deny Whitney's Story.

It was upon Whitney's version that the government attorneys appeared anxious to prove that the papers were ordered destroyed after the filing of the suit so they might not again be used as evidence.

Both Cragin and Baackes today denied Whitney's testimony but neither could give the exact dates upon which Baackes visited Worcester. All that Cragin definitely testified to was that on one of the visits Baackes had asked him if the papers had been destroyed. Henry Colton, who conducted the grand jury investigation, failed to ask Baackes directly as to when he gave the order but R. V. Lindabury of the defense sprang the question with dramatic suddenness.

While Cragin was on the stand, Judge Dickinson for the government tried unsuccessfully to get the witness to say that James H. Farrell, now president of the United States Steel corporation, was aware of the wire pools. Cragin denied that he had ever had any correspondence or conversation with Farrell on the subject.

By The Associated Press.

London, May 9.—The Royal Mail steam packet company received a cablegram from Colon today saying that its steamer Arcadian was aground on Salmadina bank near Cartagena. The cablegram said that the vessel was in no danger. The Arcadian left New York April 27, bound for Colon and Southampton.

TWO STEAMERS TO RESCUE AGROUND

By The Associated Press.

Colon, May 9.—Two steamers have gone aground in trying to assist the Arcadian, aground on Salmadina bank. The United Fruit Company's steamer Motapan, which left New York on April 24, and the Harrison Liner, Workman, which came to the Arcadian's aid are now aground on the same bank.

The canal tugboat Empire and the United Fruit Company's steamer Zacapa, which left New York May 1 for Kingston are now going to render assistance.

Everybody on board is reported to be safe.

The Arcadian carries a large party of American tourists on a cruise of West Indian and Central American ports including a stay at the Panama canal.

REVOLUTIONS IN TWO LANDS HURT MISSIONS

METHODISTS, HOWEVER, SEE PROMPTS IN MEXICO AND CHINA MUCH BRIGHTER.

By The Associated Press.
Minneapolis, May 9.—Contributions received in the last four years by the general committee for foreign missions of the Methodist Episcopal church aggregated $5,175,259, according to the committee report presented to the general conference tonight. Tabulation of the contributions showed that the proportionate increase in special contributions has been greater in that period than the increase in the regular contributions.

The report recommends that the general conference carefully consider the question of special gifts with a view of harmonizing the donations with the needs of the different fields.

The question of separate contributions for foreign and home mission fields is also presented to the conference in the report and attention is directed to the progress in foreign missions in the past 24 years showing an increase of 4.2 missionaries and 4391 native preachers.

The difficulties met by missionaries by reason of revolutions in two of the most important foreign fields, Mexico and China, are touched on in the report which finds cause for rejoicing that the future in both fields is bright.

DISEASE REGISTRY FAVORED BY MEDICOS

Want Records at Disposal of Persons Who Perform Marriage Ceremonies.

Special to The Morning News.

Hutchinson, Kas., May 9.—A resolution indorsing a law requiring registration with the boards of health of all specific diseases in private and public medical practice, was adopted by the Kansas Medical society here today.

The resolutions declare that insanity and other mental defects, as well as other forms of degeneracy, are increasing in America, out of proportion to the population, and that certain diseases are increasing in a menacing manner. It was the sense of the Kansas Medical society that there be compulsory registration with boards of health, of all specific diseases occurring in private and public medical practice.

These reports shall be made confidential reports to boards of health, to be open to inspection only to health officers and those authorized by law to solemnize the marriage vow.

REWARD FOR HONESTY $1.

Special to The Morning News.

Chicago, May 9.—Edward Stone, a brakeman on an accommodation train running between Chicago and Libertyville, last night held in his hands an old shoe box containing $25,000 without being aware of its contents.

The box had been left on the train at Morton Grove by Herbert Schoenberg. Before the train departed Schoenberg dashed into a car and asked Stone if he had seen the box. It was handed to Schoenberg unopened, who explained to the brakeman that it contained money for starting a new bank. Stone was rewarded with $1.

ROSTER OF NEW OFFICERS FOR THE PRESS CLUB

Several of the former officers were re-elected by the Press club at its last meeting. The roster for the coming year stands: President, Mrs. Temple Morrow; Vice President, Mrs. F. J. Lennox and W. E. Cresap; secretary, Mrs. W. N. Vivrett, and treasurer, Mrs. Fred Robinson.

MRS. CHARLES RICHARDSON COMES ON SAD MISSION

There arrives early this morning from Beaumont Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richardson and Miss Geraldine Richardson with the remains of the tiny daughter and sister, Leonora. The news came very unexpectedly that the grief had come into a home in which old Waco friends are always interested.

STATE OFFICER DUE HERE WILL BE WITH MRS. MUNROE

There is due from Fort Worth at noon on Saturday Mrs. Hal Greer of Beaumont, state president of the Daughters of the Confederacy. This news came by long distance and does not state whether Mrs. Greer is on a social or an official visit. Neither is the length of her time in the city named. She will be in social session with the Mary West chapter on Saturday afternoon, and entertained by Mrs. Richard Munroe.

THE DOMESTIC CLUB IS WITH MRS. GEORGE MCGHEE

The last afternoon for the Domestic club found Mrs. George McGhee hostess in a fancy work party. There was a pleasing visitor in Mrs. Philo Howard from Houston. It was the usual good time and good things to eat with this congenial club of young matrons. Mrs. Clinton Padgett was absent in San Antonio and Mrs. Brooks Pearson leaves for Corpus Christi today, two bits of personal mention from the D. S. membership.

THE VIOLET WHIST PLAYS WITH MRS. ASHER SANGER

When Mrs. Asher Sanger had included the out-of-town visitors now in the homes of her friends it was found that sufficient extras had been added to her bridge club to give the afternoon all the flurry of a card party. There was a spirited game, and the pleasure of spending the hour with some very affable women, with handsome prizes in waiting for Mrs. Dave Landman, Mrs. Dan Wise and Mrs. Carb of Fort Worth. In the hostess' own home were her mother, Mrs. Seligman from Fort Worth, also Mrs. Alexander of San Antonio, and Mrs. Carb of Fort Worth. The refreshment feature was the pleasing aftermath. The special invitations were extended to Mesdames Michelson of Austin, Rosenbaum of Oklahoma City, Schwartz of Hempstead, Isaac Goldstein, Gustav Penzels, Isaac Simmons, D. E. Hirschfeld, Abe Frank, Sam Sanger, Marcus of Wichita Falls.

THE MARY WEST CHAPTER HAS BUSINESS MEETING

There was an unusually good attendance for a business meeting when Mrs. W. H. Forester called the Mary West chapter to order at the library. There was routine discussion on many points, but the principal was the arrangement for the birth celebration of the patron of the chapter, Mrs. Mary Stark West, the founder of the local chapter for whom it is named. This is an annual observance, and this year will take the form of a picnic lunch at Cameron park. It was decided that this should be, but later a telegram came to announce the presence of the state president of the Daughters of the Confederacy, Mrs. Hal Greer of Beaumont, of something more elaborate may be had. The second item for consideration was the observance of the birthday of Jefferson Davis, which comes on the third day of June. It was twice told by Mrs. Davis before her death that she preferred this annual observance to be a holiday rather than a memorial, so the chapter proposes to request individually the merchants to close late in the afternoon, and to patronize a baseball game. The proceeds accruing will be added to the fund for the local Confederate dead of McLennan county. Mrs. Edith Leasing is appointed to visit the merchants, and to use influence to have the state's holiday formally observed in this city.

WACO TO CLEAN UP AS SHE HAS NEVER BEFORE

The sanitary department of the city commission approached the women on Thursday in the anticipation of such a clean-up as the city has never had before. It is planned now to have the full sanitary force of the city enlisted, and to reach every nook and cranny of this town. This is no fact. It is no idle subject. It means to wage war upon menaces to the health of our community, the fly, the mosquito and the typhoid germ. To clean up now means less sickness and less death. This is the foundation principle, but it means also the more attractive appearance. The women are not to lead in this clean-up crusade, as they have done in seasons gone by, but it is their duty collectively and individually to do everything possible that this clean-up may be thorough. First, the premises, next the alley behind those premises, then the street in front. But, even more, the women should talk with their laundresses and their delivermen, they should teach them that the crusade is on, and how to further it. It is not the silk stocking home, but the home who has never heard the gospel of cleanliness preached. Above all, the women should be on the lookout for unsanitary places, such as the downtown stables, the stagnant pools of water, anything which needs attention. These should be promptly reported to the sanitary officers of the city hall.

THE WEDNESDAY EUCHERE WITH MRS. W. W. SELEY

In receiving her card club, Mrs. W. W. Seley only gave special invitation to a friend or two who played for absent members. The prizes were taken by Mrs. R. L. Matthews and Miss Maren White. Mrs. G. M. Hackler of Dallas, was an out of town guest.

THE SOCIAL SHELTER TO THE MEDICAL CONVENTION

To speak of the innumerable courtesies paid individually in the great medical convalescence to reach out for the impossible. Waco is ever generous in her hospitality, and she seems to have excelled herself within the past week. But the social side of the convention days can be summed in general, at the band concert and barbecue at Cameron park, following the drive over the city. Following this was the roof garden reception on the Amicable building, the most unique think of its kind ever given anywhere. And then came the two brilliant assemblies at the Huaco club, the evening reception and the morning musical. These were the contributions from the wives and the daughters of the local physicians to the visitors, and each was a gem of social setting. In all, there were one hundred visiting women. The Waco hostesses were harmony itself in their planning. They were all united by the one thought of making their hospitality a continuous pleasure for their guests. And they succeeded.

To be one of the literal thousand twenty-three stories above ground was indeed a novel experience. The women here had improvised summer pergolas, punch stands with a never failing bowl, a hearty welcome, and a view which Waco alone can give. It was a coveted experience that there were lingers long after the glorious sunset had been behind.

Out at the Huaco club another committee had decorated and made a rose bower or a bit of wild flower prairie, or a setting for refreshments about the club. The orchestra soon set the feet a-flying and the thousand were happy in the enjoyment of the dance. Punch was served on the open porch, where the non-dancers could enjoy conversation. The past presidents and their wives were the more formal reception committee. Mrs. Howard Lanham as general chairman of the women gave first greeting. After this it was all informality and exceeding sociability upon the part of all the physicians' wives and daughters. Throughout the conventions days the women did more than a full share in the entertainment.

The musical was the last of the formal demonstrations. Here Mrs. J. W. Hale was chairman. Seated in the spacious ball room, ushered by the daughters of the doctors, each provided with printed program, there was a very appreciative audience, composed entirely of visitors and their hostesses. The numbers gave piano by Mrs. Randolph Wilson, Miss Cora Lee Jennings and Mrs. Temple Morrow. There was a quartette from Mesdames Frank Wheeler, H. J. Spaulding, James Bernard and T. N. McMillen. Miss Ermine Halberts was the violinist. The voice numbers were given by Mrs. R. Spencer Wood, Mrs. Gertrude Mills Hunnicutt and Mrs. Howard Mann. Misses Mary Anderson and Bessie Byrd Burleson were accompanists. There was a salad course and other attentions to make this an event of note.

In all, Waco has given the social side to welcome the largest aggregation of physicians ever seen in Texas during the forty-four years of such assemblages.

COURTESY FROM MRS. POWERS TO MISS MARGARET JOHNSON

That Mrs. J. J. Powers gave a beautiful card party, every single guest agrees. That she gave a most enjoyable bridge tilt, all these same guests agree. And that she introduced a charming young honoree, is still further agreed. In all, the welcome into the home and the entertainment afforded makes Mrs. Powers recognized as one of the delightful card hostesses of the small season. She anticipated every detail so carefully that the afternoon was a transition of ease and grace. There was the blue bonnet bowl to nod its patronage of the springtime on the prairie, and within there were hundreds of beautiful roses to tell the wealth of the spring gardens.

Mrs. Powers gave greeting, which was gracefully supplemented by presenting the honoree, Miss Margaret Johnson of Athens, who was spending a few days in this hospitable home. Soon the three rooms were filled with women in the fascination of bridge. The scores ran high and there was double excitement in that guests were one game, and the Colonial club, which Mrs. Powers was entertaining, was another. When "double" ran a count into the hundreds there was excitement with an accent. The final count after six tables were played gave the club prize, the usual decorated plate, to Mrs. Lon Sparks. Miss Kate Friend took the guest favor, a dainty little piece of Sheffield to hold lemon slices. The consolation cut was made by Mrs. Charles Langhorne of Virginia. The club spoon went to Mrs. John C. Ray. One pleasing feature was the presence of both young girls and matrons. The game closed, all repaired to the refreshment room, to welcome the immense bowl of frozen punch, brought out by the butler. This was served with an angel food square around a table set in the La Fayette pink buds. It was an au revoir to Miss Johnson, who is already at home in Athens to welcome a house party. Mrs. Powers has a home admirably arranged for a large company, and this she showed to the greatest advantage. There were several out of town guests to be introduced, and these received warm welcome. In all, the courtesy of Mrs. Powers to her guest and to her own was a card never to be forgotten by the enthusiasts but the several who called for the last pleasantries. The guest list reads:

Mesdames Frank Wells, W. R. Davidson, Alfred Edwards, Ed Drake, F. J. Lennox, Stark West, Ralph Turner, Lon Sparks, Fred Robinson, H. K. Brewer, Fitzgerald of Dallas, H. Lewis, Charles Langhorne, Zim Hunt, George Tod, A. W. Koch, Er Clark, R. T. Church, C. M. Clabee, George Hunter, Smith, George Patten, Edwin Drake, Pio Crespi, Frank Foreman, William McCall, M. D. Nash, Jr., Ramsey Cox, John Freeman, Bert Weathered, Jackson, Clarence Kelly, Misses Gladys Hurd, Mary Mann West, Kate Friend, Ruth Lennox, Jimmie Riggs, Nell Jurney, Ellen Hardin.

Society Notes.

The Texas women are rather resenting the announcement that Mrs. J. J. Powers is a contributor to the Titanic memorial fund. These recall the voluntary offers from Mrs. J. J. Powers, to donate the first hundred dollars. This was immediately after the disaster, and it places a Texas woman in advance of the First Lady of the land.

Mrs. Richard Munroe issued invitations on Thursday for Tuesday afternoon when she entertains in honor of Miss Willie Seley as a bride-elect.

Both Mrs. H. B. Mistrot and Mrs. J. R. Davis are mentioned as hostesses in prospect in courtesy to Mrs. Paul Montgomery from Oklahoma.

With Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. Powers and Mrs. Drake, the blue bonnet has given porch welcome. There is a sentiment in this which all should observe. No one has the blue bonnet like we have. It is the admiration even to envy of our visitors from the north. Therefore, we should show our appreciation, and we do.

Mrs. P. R. Hengst has at last joined club ranks. She is a member of the Press club for the coming year. The attraction to Mrs. Hengst was her desire to do deeper Bible study.

They say now that we do not know even the first principle of opening a book. We have been at it a long time not to have learned the primary movement.

How the women did flock down to the cheap dress sale yesterday morning!

It is so often inquired whether or not invitations should be sent into the house of mourning. Of course, they should, just like into any other home. It is not that the one bereaved is expected to respond; she is even excused from any reply, but it is the message of sweet thought, the saying of the hostess, absent, though not forgotten.

While the women are bestirring themselves in other directions, why not ask the privilege of inserting a plate to tell the coming generations the home of that great maker of Texas history, the lamented Dr. Burleson?

In foreign countries, the note is frequent. It is inspiring to youth, it is interesting to tourists, and it shows that the people honor memory of good deeds done. Will not some one think about this mark of memory to Dr. Burleson? The old home stands in preservation on South Ninth, a typical home of the Old South, and a memory which every man and woman of the entire state should rever.

Swat the fly. He is the enemy to your child and an unsanitary inhabitant in your home. To kill one fly is to prevent the appearance of one thousand new flies.

How few little folks parties these delightful spring days! Perhaps they are to come with the vacation time.

If any one doubts the possibility of perfecting the crimson rambler rose in this climate, take a peep at the trellis in the Keith yard, Twelfth and Columbus, and be convinced that the rambler is a possibility.

Wonder if somebody has not a front fence which could be spared in order to make one more beauty spot for the city?

The local physicians' wives certainly sustained Waco's reputation for generous hospitality. They planned well and they executed greatly to their credit.

Recent hostesses have so much appreciated the thoughtfulness of many friends in sending in the fresh clippings from their flower gardens. This thoughtfulness has added to the beauty of all the late afternoon parties.

Miss Queen Barnett is entertaining her card club, the Maids and Matrons, this afternoon.

Mrs. George McLendon is the next hostess for the Young Married Ladies' Euchre. She entertains at the Huaco club.

The Friday bridge will play with Mrs. W. B. Brazelton on Austin avenue during Friday afternoon.

"S DEATH, I'VE GOT HIS TRAIL," SAYS YOUNG MAN

Amateur Sleuth Ponders Deeply and Thinks He's Recognized Who's Who?

Endeavors to Penetrate the Mystery That Has Caused Thousands of Questions Here in Waco

He stood on one of the main streets, and his facial expression bespoke intense interest; his optics were large, and they became larger as he gazed at one of the signs which are now conspicuous in many parts of the city, "$20.00 Reward. Find Who Is Who." The picture on the card, merely the back of a man's head, was the object of his attention. "I know that fellow, and I will sure take a change on finding him." Now, this amateur detective didn't go through the exciting preliminaries of our esteemed friend, Sherlock Holmes, by searching the sidewalk with a magnifying glass in all directions, looking for mysterious footprints, and then, "Very simple, my dear Watson, very simple; if you will have the kindness to hand me that small box of cocaine, and that violet scented envelope, I will be very glad to enlighten you. You see, it was this way—" You, of course, know how the story goes. None of that "coarse" work for this self-appointed "vigilance committee of one"—he was rude enough to skip all the details, thoughtfully poked a two-for-a-quarter between his teeth, and stole the placard. To hurry down the street was the action of a moment, with the concealed "evidence" about him. Entering a well kept store, he cornered the merchant and demanded the $20.00 reward. The merchant whispered something in his ear; both had a big laugh and another cigar. The detective went on his way, indulging in a broad smile.

What whisper was whispered?

HOME RULE BILL GOES STEP FORWARD

GOVERNMENT PASSES MEASURE ON ITS SECOND READING BY HEAVY VOTE.

By The Associated Press.

London, May 9.—The government carried the home rule bill on its second reading in the house of commons tonight by a majority of 101, as against 94 for the first reading. The vote was 372 to 271.

It was the most largely attended house attendance to be seen in parliament. Mr. Balfour, former opposition leader, and Mr. Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, returned from Weymouth today. The figures showing an increased majority occasioned enthusiastic demonstrations on the government side and the prime minister was given an ovation on leaving the house with his wife and daughter.

The bill was formally referred to a committee of the whole house but as home rule and Welsh disestablishment are being taken consecutively it will now be the turn of the Welsh bill. The committee stage of the home rule bill is not expected to be reached until after Whit Sunday and probably will occupy a couple of months even with a deliberate application of the cloture as the opposition is offering an endless list of amendments and will adopt every possible means to obstruct the measure.

Curiously the second reading of the home rule bill coincides with the disappearance of the conservative as the official designation of the party under the title "National Unionist association," thus the liberal Unionists who seceded from

Gladstone on his espousal of the home rule now become part and parcel of the Tory party.

BIG DELEGATION TO RAILROAD MEETING

MANY WACOANS LEAVE TONIGHT IN SPECIAL CARS FOR BEAUMONT AND RIVER TRIP.

Waco-Beaumont Road's Possibilities, Neches River and Harbor to Be Shown.

Waco and central Texas will tonight send an enthusiastic delegation of boosters to Beaumont to attend the Waco-Beaumont railroad rally there Saturday. Nearly forty men up to last night had announced their intention of making the trip, and a number more will probably be lined up today by Ray C. Pollock, secretary of the Waco Real Estate exchange, who is actively in charge. Not alone Waco, but several other cities in this section will have representatives on the train, including Mart, Hamilton and Corsicana. Other cities will also be represented, it is thought.

Col. John L. Spurlin of Hamilton, the promoter of the road, who arrived in Waco yesterday, feels considerably encouraged over the interest in the trip, and he will be with the party that leaves Waco tonight in the special Pullmans over the H. & T. C. at 10:40 o'clock. He said last night that a number of other towns on the proposed line of the Waco-Beaumont road will have representatives in Beaumont Saturday.

Beaumont to Entertain.
The Chamber of Commerce at Beaumont has charge of the entertainment plans for the day, and included is an automobile ride over the city, a trip down the Neches river on a special steamer to Port Sabine, a special train back, and a reception at the Country club at Beaumont Saturday night. The trip down the Neches river and inspection of the proposed harbor at Beaumont, by which the Waco-Beaumont road will be materially benefited, comprise the most interesting feature of the day, and this is the main cause of the whole trip. It is thought that by showing the possibilities of the river and harbor, the road's power will appeal more strongly to central Texans.

Mileage Shortened.
In connection with the Waco-Beaumont project, a man high in railroad circles and one of the leading business men of Texas, wrote to Mr. Spurlin from Austin yesterday that "In the first place, such a line as you propose will considerably shorten the mileage between territory of supply and consumption of lumber, and in turn foodstuffs, thus not only giving more direct outlet, but offering benefit in the case of haul, due to reduction of distance. In the second place, you will open up new country, giving railroad facilities not heretofore enjoyed."

At all events, you have our best wishes for the success of your undertaking, and we will be glad to give you such aid as lies within our power in your efforts.

"From Waco to Galveston via the Katy the distance is 292 miles; via the I. & G. N., 259; via the H. & T. C., 242. Over our proposed line from Waco to Beaumont it is 210 miles to water, or 82 miles shorter, making a freight division virtually saved."

John L. Spurlin Jr. and R. F. Scoggin of Hamilton will arrive in Waco this afternoon and accompany the party to Beaumont. Mr. Spurlin Jr. is a partner with his father in business and will be associated with him in the building of the road. Mr. Scoggin will also be associated in the construction work.

Pullman tickets are now in the hands of Ray C. Pollock of the Waco Real Estate exchange, and reservations not already made should be phoned early this morning.

Representative Delegation.

Those who have announced their intention of going to Beaumont tonight include Col. Spurlin, E. W. Marshall, Roy E. Lane, Peyton Randall, J. R. Milam, Frank K. James, George McLendon, Dero Wood, V. C. McIntyre, W. H. Hoffmann, T. A. Caulfield, Bart Moore, Capt. M. B. Davis, Turner Hubby, C. L. Willie, A. D. Adams, Frank Miller, R. C. Pollock, F. M. Mayfield, John L. Spurlin Jr., R. F. Scoggin, W. W. Naman, C. J. Cartwright, Wm. A. Green, H. H. Shear, R. T. Crawford, C. A. Meroney, Geo. Robinson of the Times-Herald, F. E. Burkhalter of the Tribune, G. B. Cady of The News, all of Waco; L. O. Peck of the Hamilton Rustler; Record; T. M. Wilson, president of the Farmers and Merchants bank of Mart; R. W. Bass, vice president of the State bank, Mart; E. E. Johnson, I. & G. N. agent at Mart; E. H. Richardson, A. A. Wortham, editor of the Sun, and J. L. Herbert, all of Corsicana, who will join the party here.

YOUTH COMES BACK TO "KIMMEL" WITH MEMORY

Years Appear to Have Dropped From "Man of Mystery" Since Operation.

Special to The Morning News.

Chicago, May 9.—Fourteen years have dropped from the life of the man who claims to be George Kimmel.

Physicians and nurses of Robert Burns' hospital, after talking with the principal in this strangest of identity mysteries, today declared their belief that the recent operation, performed in an effort to restore his memory, likewise restored his youth.

Kimmel, or Andrew White, whichever he may be, said his first thought upon gaining consciousness after the operation was that he was in the St. Louis hotel in which he was attacked by thugs in 1898.

"The fourteen wasted years have passed. I believe I am beginning life again from that point," he told an attendant. The very appearance of the patient verifies this statement. Instead of a wrinkled and prematurely aged man, 45 years old, he seems a man of 30, happy and alert.

Kimmel spent many hours today

reading and smoking or sitting near his open window and occasionally waving to children playing just across the street in Garfield park. Late in the day he spoke of his returning memory and the horror of the wasted years of his life, in the first official statement he has made since the operation last Wednesday. The statement, dictated to Miss Maud Fitchel, his nurse, follows:

"To the Public: I thank you for the kindly interest you all have manifested in my behalf during the past weeks and months and especially during the operation. My memory is coming back to me gradually and with it comes a horror of the wasted years of my life. I have no doubt I can satisfy every one as to my identity. I am too weak mentally and physically to say more. My head and chest is in a plaster cast."

Early this week the patient will tell the story that is expected to finally decide whether he is the real George A. Kimmel of Niles, Mich., or an imposter.

LAST OF POWDER TRAIN ANTIETAM HEROES DIES

Jeremiah Donovan, When 17 Years Old, Tried to Cool Hot Boxes.

Special to The Morning News.

Carlisle, Pa., May 9.—With the death of Peremiah C. Donovan, marble and granite cutter, the list of those who helped save the North from invasion in 1862 by taking a powder train through to Antietam has lost its last name.

General McClellan was fighting desperately against Lee's combined forces on the field of Antietam, when he discovered that powder was scarce, so that he could not use his heavy artillery against the Confederate forces. McClellan telegraphed to Washington that he must have powder at once. A trainload of explosives was hastened to Bridgeport, Pa., and the Cumberland Valley railroad was requested to carry it over its lines to Antietam. Volunteers were sought to run the engine.

"I'll take it to Antietam or to hell," said Joe Miller, engineer, as he stepped to the throttle. With the tracks clear for a stretch of 78 miles between the Susquehanna and the Potomac, Joe Miller and his crew made record time with only two stops. When the train reached Chambersburg the axle boxes were ablaze and Jeremiah Donovan, then 17 years old, climbed aboard and volunteered his services. He vainly tried to keep the axle boxes cool during the spurt to Hagerstown, eight miles from Antietam. It resembled a train of fire and smoke as it pulled into the Maryland city.

The powder saved the day for McClellan and placed the crew of the powder train on the unrecorded roll of the heroes of Antietam. Donovan was the last survivor. He was a native of Chambersburg and came to Carlisle 37 years ago and established a marble yard here.

HEARSE TOO SMALL TO RECEIVE BODY

Special to The Morning News.

Northumberland, Pa., May 9.—Isaac Bordner of Point township, was buried today near here, his coffin having been the largest on record in the county. He weighed over 300 pounds and was 6 feet 8 inches tall. It was necessary to cut out a window to remove the coffin from the house.

When the pallbearers tried to place it in the hearse it was found to be too narrow, and the funeral was delayed until the undertaker procured a wagon, in which the body was conveyed to the cemetery.

PLAY TWO GAMES HERE

CHAMPIONSHIP OF STATE AND
SOUTH DEPEND ON RESULT.
BAYLOR IS STRONG.

The championship of Texas and practically the southern collegiate baseball championship will be decided by the two games between Baylor and A. & M. colleges today and tomorrow. Baylor led the circuit with 1000 per cent until T. C. U. took a couple from her on last week's north Texas trip, and A. & M. now has an equal shot at the pennant. A. & M. was the first team to put the brakes on Baylor in her mad dash for first honors. When Baylor bumped into the farmers they won one game and tied the other. Since that time the farmers have developed quite a bit and are beyond doubt the heaviest hitting team in the circuit.

A. & M. is depending on Miller, the young southpaw who did such great work in the fourteen-inning pitchers' duel with Captain Harrell. Harrell is expected to work the first day, and is in excellent form. Henry, who pitched air-tight ball against Austin college last Saturday, letting them down with but one hit, will probably pitch the second game. For Baylor, Davis is on short again, and with Moseley on first and McMahon on third, this makes the infield stronger than at any other time this season. Wilman, Jack Little and Dick Hooper will hold down the outfield.

"Pep" is running high at Baylor, and A. & M. arrived last night with a train of rooters in tow.

He laid the skull before the anatomical congress at Munich, which has unanimously accepted the report he made regarding it.

Professor Welcker in 1883 proved that a skull, supposed to be Schiller's, was spurious.

TRIPLE PLAY BY AIKEN FEATURE OF DEFEAT

HOUSTON WINS OVER WACO BY 5 TO 4 SCORE—FATE, LUCK AND UMPIRE HELP.

Foster Retires Eight Consecutive Men—Miller, Back in Game, Succeeds Jost.

By The Associated Press.

Houston, May 9.—Fighting an uphill game, but assisted by fate, the umpire, luck and the squeeze play, Houston defeated the league leaders today, 5 to 4. Waco scored four runs on rank support behind Foster, who twirled magnificently, striking out eleven men, eight being consecutive. Vic Miller was substituted for Hardy for Jost in the third inning, and all of Houston's runs were scored off him.

A brilliant feature of today's game was a triple play unassisted by Third Baseman Roy Aiken of the visitors. The play occurred in the first inning, when, with Fillman on third and Britton on second, Davis at bat, the signal for a squeeze was given. Jost, the Waco pitcher, took a long wind-up, and Fillman was almost on the plate when Davis bunted toward third, the ball sliding to Aiken. Aiken made a great gloved-hand stop and touched Britton, who had already run down to third. He then touched third, retiring Fillman, who had no chance to get back. The score:

Dallas 9, San Antonio 1.

By The Associated Press.

San Antonio, May 9.—Seven local errors and two innings of timely Dallas batting won the first game of the series from the Bronchos today, 9 to 1. A double play started by Enns was the feature. The game was the poorest seen here this season, although the work put up by Dallas deserved to win.

Beaumont and Austin Tie.

By The Associated Press.

Beaumont, May 9.—In the eighth inning between Austin and Beaumont today the score stood 6 to 3 in Beaumont's favor, and Peaster had struck out two batters, when he either got sick or wearied. He walked two men and Hill came up and drove a home run to the remotest corner of the field. It was one of the fiercest struggles the local patrons have yet seen, but it was clean and fast and strenuous, classy baseball. There was not a wrangle of any kind and not an unpleasant feature today. The game went eleven innings to a tie.

Galveston 6, Fort Worth 4.

By The Associated Press.

Galveston, May 9.—By the plentiful rapping of Parrish and Smith, Galveston took the first of the series from Fort Worth this afternoon by a score of 6 to 4. The locals started off with a rush and piled up a score of five runs before the visitors counted. Fort Worth's runs all came in the sixth inning, when a walk and two errors laid the bases, and a double by March, followed by a single from the stick of Witherspoon, pushed the four scores across. The visitors played listless ball and did not seem to make a very great effort to win.

RAYMOND, HE SAYS

By The Associated Press.

St. Louis, May 9.—When McGraw of the New York National League team, was told of the reinstatement of Arthur Raymond before the New York team departed for Chicago tonight, he expressed surprise and said:

"Well, he can report whenever he gets ready, but I have no place for him."

"Then you don't intend to use him?" he was asked.

"It seems that way," answered McGraw.

WOLGAST'S MANAGER ACCEPTS THE McFARLAND OFFER

By The Associated Press.

San Francisco, May 9.—Tom Jones manager for Ad Wolgast, said today he would accept the offer of the Garden Athletic club of New York to guarantee the lightweight champion a purse of $15,000 for a ten-round bout with Packey McFarland, on condition that McFarland weigh in at 133 pounds three or four hours before the bout. Jones said his only open date was June 1, and that he had wired the club to that effect.

Hotpoint Day

May 11, 1912

The Three Pound Hotpoint Iron Will

Be Sold For

HALF PRICE---$2.25

You Will Never Again Have a Chance to Buy This Famous Electric Iron at Half Price.

Make ironing day---a comfort day!

A three-pound Iron is entirely satisfactory for all the lighter forms of ironing, such as the woman of the house may prefer to do herself. It slips in and out of tucks and pleats and into sleeves just as if made for that purpose. Does heavier work, too!

HOTPOINT ELECTRIC IRON

—if one wants to do "just a minute's worth" of quick ironing—doesn't want to wait for the heavier iron to heat up—this little Hotpoint is ready in no time, and besides, it is so light the work's a pleasure.

—every woman needs it in the sewing room, whether or not she has a six-pound Hotpoint in the kitchen. And in the nursery—any mother knows what it means to have an iron light enough to handle easily—and always handy when she wants it.

—it is essentially the "school girl's iron"—for the young girl of the house who wants to "do up" a few "fluffy ruffles" for herself. Maybe the six-pound iron is too heavy for her. She'll prize the lightness and convenience of its "small brother."

—All she has to do is unscrew the lamp, screw in the plug that comes with the iron, and presto! it's ready in a jiffy. This "little" Hotpoint fills the bill—always.

CHILDREN SOLD AS SLAVES IN MARKET

Tyrolese Peasant Boys and Girls Work On Farms For Season.

Special to The Morning News.

Vienna, May 9.—There are not many tourists at Friedrichshafen, on the Lake of Constance, at Easter time, but a few, nevertheless, who happened to be passing through witnessed a strange scene in the chief square, which resembled an Arab slave market in Africa. This was the yearly market of Tyrolese children—125 boys and thirty girls between the ages of 11 and 16, who had arrived that morning in a special steamer, under the care of a Roman Catholic priest, were standing huddled together in front of the Golden Wheel inn, waiting to be sold to the highest bidder for the season's farm work. Purchasers were not lacking, for 600 peasant-farmers from Baden, Wurtemberg and Bavaria had come to get child slaves to work on their farms, and the market, scrutinizing the boys and girls, sometimes feeling their heads, and then making an offer to the priest.

Owing to the demand this year being so much greater than the supply the prices ruled high, $62.50 being given for a sturdy lad of 16, big enough to wield the hay fork or a scythe effectively, while $50 was given for one of the older girls, who looked as if she could do a long day's weeding in the sun. On the other hand, $12.50 was considered enough for little, underfed mites of 11, who ought to have been at school, and who, it is to be hoped, will be used for nothing more severe than watching flocks of geese and driving cattle out and home at milking time.

The money, of course, goes to the children's parents, landless men in the remote valleys of Tyrol, woodmen and the like, who, one would be glad to believe, are driven by sheer destitution to send their children to work for strangers in a foreign country. The child slaves are sent home at the end of October—all, that is, but some who succumb to overwork, ill treatment, and homesickness. That the children are not always well treated is proved by the fact that the priest this year brought with him a black list of a dozen farmers who are to be let no more children, but it is satisfactory at least to find that there is some kind of control exercised.

The whole business of the child market, which is of great antiquity, is now arranged by a clerical society named the Turoler Hutekinder-Verein, the activity of which is violently attacked by part of the local press, which demands its suppression.

MAN OF HOUSE CAN'T DISCHARGE HIS COOK

Special to The Morning News.

Tacoma, Wash., May 9.—Because, he alleges, her bread was like bricks and her biscuits like stones, T. R. Dunkerley attempted this morning to put his cook out of the house.

Dunkerley, who is a small man, says the cook refused to go and threatened him. He procured a peace warrant for "Jane Doe" West.

He was told to return and order his cook from the house, and if she refused to go, to call a constable. Soon he called up and said the warrant would have to be served.

Constable Fred Shaw was met at the door by a quiet, inoffensive stout woman, who said she was the person he was seeking. She admitted she had refused to leave, saying she had been given the position by Mrs. Dunkerley, who is on a visit in North Yakima and who had ordered her not to leave under any circumstances.

Shaw returned to police court and told the circumstances. Mrs. West probably will not be arrested for some time, at least not on Dunkerley's warrant.

SLAYER FINDS SON IS MURDERER, ALSO

Special to The Morning News.

Michigan, City, Ind., May 9.—Nelson Fritts and his son, John, both convicted of murder, the father a life convict and the son sentenced to be hanged in June, met in the office of the warden of the penitentiary here last night.

It was the first time they had met since 1900, when the father entered the penitentiary. John was then 8 years old. When the son was 17 years old he committed a theft and was sent to the reformatory at Jeffersonville. Last year he killed a guard there, and for this crime was condemned to die.

At first the elder Fritts refused to believe the young man was his son, but finally was convinced.

AFRICA STILL TALKS OF T. R. SAYS HUNTER

National Sciences Academy Representative Heard of Colonel's Exploits.

Special to The Morning News.

Philadelphia, May 9.—The masterful personality of Theodore Roosevelt impressed itself on the natives of darkest Africa in a most pronounced manner, according to Alfred M. Collins of Byrn Mawr, who returned Wednesday from a hunting trip into the wilds of British East Africa, made in the interest of the Academy of Natural Sciences of this city.

Mr. Collins said yesterday that it was surprising how the natives who accompanied Colonel Roosevelt on his African hunt remembered him. Without exception, they spoke highly of him as a sportsman, and he seemed to have won their greatest admiration.

"Several of the natives who accompanied our party had been members of the Roosevelt party," said Mr. Collins yesterday, "and from the chief guides down to the humblest tent boys, he was greatly admired by all. Throughout our trip, whenever we traversed territory which had been included in his itinerary, the natives spoke of the former president in glowing terms, particularly in regard to his ability as a hunter. He seems to have impressed himself very firmly on the portion of Africa over which he traveled."

West Philadelphia Storage Man Unfolds Marital Woes to Magistrate.

Special to The Morning News.

Philadelphia, May 9.—When he was arraigned before Magistrate Boyle yesterday, charged with breach of the peace in connection with an attack on Henry Domish, owner of a furniture storage house at 48 South Sixth street, Wednesday night, William H. Spittler, president of the Regent Furniture Storage company, 5203 Baltimore avenue, defended his action by declaring that he caught Domish embracing Mrs. Spittler.

The Spittlers have been separated nearly a year, and Mrs. Spittler is employed at the Domish establishment. While passing Domish's place Spittler testified he saw his wife and her employer seated in the office and the latter had his arms about her waist. Magistrate Boyle, after hearing the testimony, placed the men under $300 bail each to keep the peace.

Mrs. Spittler, who is young and attractive, denied that her employer embraced her. Some time ago Mrs. Spittler started divorce proceedings, but the case has not yet come to trial. Mrs. Spittler also said her husband is under $1000 bail on a charge of beating her.

ADVANCE FOLLOWS A LOWER COTTON OPENING

LEADING BULL INTERESTS GIVE MARKET ACTIVE SUPPORT AT THE START.

By The Associated Press.

New York, May 9.—A lower opening in the cotton market was followed by an advance on predictions of unsettled weather in the south, and while the closing tone was barely steady, last prices showed a net gain of 4 to 8 points for the day.

The market opened steady at a decline of 5 to 8 points in response to lower cables and reports of generally good weather in the south for the past twenty-four hours. Leading bull interests at the market active support at the start absorbing rather heavily local offerings. Inspiring by the weakness of Liverpool. Notwithstanding the publication of official forecast for unsettled and showery weather in all sections of the belt except the Carolinas and Georgia, the market turned firmer. These unfavorable forecasts appeared to be restricting sales rather than stimulating any general buying for long contracts, and after a rally to about the closing figures of yesterday, trading became quiet. As prices worked up, people who had sold at the opening began covering, probably in fear of an unfavorable map tomorrow morning. Active months sold about 11 to 12 points, but higher early in the last hour, but around 11.50 for July and 11.75 for October there was a good deal of realizing, and the close was 5 or 6 points off from the best. Reports of a cloudburst in Oklahoma may have helped the afternoon advance, but they were denied later, and the main factor was a rally from the early low point, fear of renewed rain in the central belt, and the numerous reports from the south complaining of delayed farm work and other unfavorable new crop features. The decline in Liverpool was attributed to liquidation on the better weather reported over night in the south.

Receipts 5313 bales, against 11,456 last week and 9432 last week. Today's receipts at Galveston 1771, against 1291 last year; at New Orleans 1135, against 6119 last year, and at Houston 893, against 2036 last year.

The close was barely steady.
